School-to-work life cycle in Latin America

What challenges does a student in Latin America face along his educational life-cycle?

Pre-primary school
- 0 out of 10 kids in Latin America are not enrolled in this level.

Primary school
- 9 out of 10 enter primary school.
- 15% of students drop-out.

Secondary school
- 7.4 out of 10 enter secondary education.
- 3.4 out of 10 kids in Latin America are not enrolled in this level.

Tertiary school
- 7 out of 10 enter tertiary education.
- 40% of Latin American population is enrolled in tertiary education.
- 4 out of 10 enter tertiary education.

Labour market
- 40% of Latin American population is enrolled in tertiary education.
- 4 out of 10 enter tertiary education.

In Latin America the probability that firms face difficulties in finding the skills they need is...

- 3 times higher than in South Asia.
- 13 times higher than in Asia-Pacific.

Designer: Margherita Gagliardi
margheritagagliardi.tumblr.com

© OECD
Source: Latin American Economic Outlook 2015

---

In Latin America, a 15-year-old student performs on average the equivalent of 2.4 years of schooling below his peer in OECD countries.

A Latin American student performs on average the equivalent of 2.4 years of schooling below his peer in OECD countries.

In Latin America, the probability that firms face difficulties in finding the skills they need is...

- 3 times higher than in South Asia.
- 13 times higher than in Asia-Pacific.